

OPEN CALL FOR ALL POSITIONS

Join Chef Michael Mina's Social House Opening at the International Market Place!

The Street is a bustling collection of culinary experiences carefully curated by Chef Michael Mina to highlight the perspectives and expertise of many talented chefs.

The Street features a collection of stations and cuisines —each offering a delicious menu driven by the chefs' passion for the food they love to cook and eat. A variety of dining options – offering something for everyone – reflects a global perspective, while elevating the local fare by using the chefs' favorite local artisans and purveyors.

A place for friends and family to gather for a casual meal or festive celebration, The Street is open for breakfast, lunch, dinner, or anytime in between—making it the perfect destination for any occasion—any day of the week.

We're looking for passionate individuals with drive and the desire to continue their career growth with a company offering endless opportunities, as well as competitive compensation and an attractive benefits package.
